

Name: .....

Date: .....

Zeus - King of the Gods

Zeus is the supreme ruler of Mount Olympus and the king of all gods. He controls the sky, weather, thunder, and lightning. Known for his power and justice, he carries a mighty thunderbolt and is often accompanied by his sacred bird, the majestic golden eagle.

Name: .....

Date: .....

Athena - Goddess of Wisdom & War

Athena is the goddess of wisdom, courage, crafts, and strategic warfare. Unlike Ares, she values strategy and intellect over brute force. She is the patron goddess of Athens, and her symbols include the owl (representing wisdom) and the olive branch (representing peace).

Name: .....

Date: .....

Poseidon - God of the Sea

Poseidon is the ruler of the oceans, storms, earthquakes, and horses. He is one of the three major brother gods alongside Zeus and Hades. Poseidon carries a magical three-pronged trident that can cause earthquakes, trigger tidal waves, or calm the seas.

Name: .....

Date: .....

Apollo - God of the Sun & Music

Apollo is the god of music, poetry, art, archery, light, and the sun. He is the twin brother of Artemis. Apollo rides a golden chariot across the sky to bring light to the world. He is famous for playing his golden lyre, a stringed instrument made by Hermes.

Name: .....

Date: .....

Artemis - Goddess of the Hunt & Moon

Artemis is the goddess of wild animals, the wilderness, archery, and the moon. Twin sister to Apollo, she is a protector of nature and young girls. She travels through the forests with her golden bow and silver arrows, often accompanied by a sacred deer.

Name: .....

Date: .....

Hermes - Messenger of the Gods

Hermes is the messenger of the gods and the patron of travelers, merchants, and athletes. He is the fastest of all gods, thanks to his magical winged sandals and winged helmet. Hermes carries the caduceus staff—a winged staff entwined with two snakes.

